Commitment to safeguarding

Fresh Film as a cultural organisation working with young people acknowledges that it has a responsibility for keeping children and young people safe from harm who are involved in arts projects, attending workshops or otherwise under its temporary care. It also recognises that good welfare and child protection policies and procedures are of benefit to everyone involved with the organisation's work, including staff.

Policy and principal:

- Fresh Film is committed to a young-person centred approach in our work.
- Fresh Film is open to all young people regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, socio- economic status, national origin, sexual orientation, ability or Faith
- We undertake to provide a safe environment and positive experience; the welfare of the young person is paramount.
- Fresh Film will comply with national policy and is guided by the Children First Act 2015, Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017), and Tulsa's Child Safeguarding: A Guide for Policy, Procedure and Practice. Fresh Film has developed policies and procedures to ensure that this commitment is imbued in all aspects of the organisation. The

Procedures

Our Child Safeguarding Statement has been developed in line with requirements under the Children First Act 2015, Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017), and Tulsa's Child Safeguarding: A Guide for Policy, Procedure and Practice.

In addition to the procedures listed in our risk assessment, the following procedures support our intention to safeguard children while they are availing of our service:

- Procedure for the management of allegations of abuse or misconduct against workers/volunteers of a child availing of our service;
- Procedure for the safe recruitment and selection of workers and volunteers to work with children;
- Procedure for provision of and access to child safeguarding training and information, including the identification of the occurrence of harm;
- Procedure for the reporting of child protection or welfare concerns to Tulsa;
- Procedure for maintaining a list of the persons (if any) in Fresh Film Festival who are mandated persons;
- Procedure for recruitment and selection.

All procedures listed are available upon request.

Implementation

We recognise that implementation is an on-going process. Our service is committed to the implementation of this Child Safeguarding Statement and the procedures that support our intention to keep children safe from harm while availing of our service.

This Child Safeguarding Statement will be reviewed annually or as soon as practicable after there has been a material change in any matter to which the statement refers.
